Dear Parents/Carers,

Thank you for your prompt responses to allow us to identify your occupations.

Unfortunately, we are still awaiting a directive, and clarity, from the Government in order to determine which parents are 'key workers' and which children are considered 'vulnerable'.

Once we have a definitive list and clarification (hopefully later today, but likely tomorrow), we will write to all parents with one of the following letters:

1. Letter to Parents who are classified as 'key workers' whose child will be able to attend school on Monday 23rd March
2. Letter to Parents whose children are 'vulnerable' and will be able to attend school on Monday 23rd March
3. Letter to Parents who are not classified as 'key workers' whose children will not be able to attend school on Monday 23rd March

We will also write to parents who have children who are eligible for Free School Meals (as a result of family income) explaining how the Free School Meals service will continue.

Those children who will not be attending school on Monday 23rd March will have access to Home-learning and communication with teachers, and this will be explained in the letter provided.

This situation is ever changing and evolving as well as Government advice so please be aware that these are only proposed actions. We will, however, ensure parents are kept up to date and informed of the latest information for schools.

Thank you for your support in what has been a difficult time for everyone and we would like to thank you for your words and acts of kindness.

If you have any questions or queries, please do not hesitate in contacting us.

Yours faithfully,

Jack Pittaway & John Rowe

Co-Headteachers
