

Q Mark Answers

24. Up to 2 'Adventures with Pip' is written in the first person because the author uses words like 'I, we and my' instead of 'his or her,' as shown by:
- 'I turned back to where the rustling came from.'
 - 'I sat on a log and took an apple out of my bag.'
 - 'The feeling I get during this moment is always the most exhilarating rush.'
 - 'Now we were at the top, looking out over the undulating fields of brilliant yellows and greens.'

Award 2 marks for correctly explaining that the text is written in the first person and for including two relevant examples from the text (such as those listed above).
 Incorrect answer? Award 1 mark for pupils that explain that the text is written in the first person but only include one relevant example from the text to support their answer.
Do not award a mark if the pupil has not given examples from the text or not directly related their example(s) to the question.
