

Kingdoms of living things

Name	Features	Examples
Bacteria 	Microscopic Single-celled No organelles
Plants 	Usually make their own food through photosynthesis Made of many cells Cell wall Cuticle (waxy layer to stop it drying out) Reproduce through sex cells or spores Stay in one place
Animals 	Made of many cells Cells have a nucleus They can move on their own Obtain food from other organisms Digest their food Reproduce sexually and asexually
Fungi 	Get their food from rotting matter Reproduce through spores Not mobile Have cells with a nucleus
Protists 	Usually microscopic Have cells with a nucleus Anything which is not a bacteria, animal, plant or fungus	