Monday		Learning to spell - Year 2 common exception words. after, child, every, half, move, plant, whole	Use your own techniques to learn how to spell each of the tricky words. It may be writing them out several times, looking at their shapes or even rhymes such as Peter Eats Orange Peel Like Elephants (people!). If you're stuck for inspiration, have a look through this blog post for some activities. https://fiveminutemum.com/2019/11/17/spellings-the-five-minute-way/
Tuesday	We are learning alternative spellings for the /ee/ phoneme	Can you list all of the ways we can say the /ee/ sound? (ee, ea, e, e_e etc.). Log onto Phonics Play (log in at the top) and follow the link below (to Investigating Alternative Spellings /ai) and click onto Phoneme Spotter. https://www.phonicsplay.co.uk/resources/phase/5/alt-spellings-ee	Work your way through the phoneme spotter (you can print it out if you need to). Try and spot as many variations of the /ai/ sound as possible. You may find it easier to read it out loud so you can hear the sounds too!

Wednesday	We are learning alternative spellings for the /ai/ phoneme	Revise tricky words from Monday's lesson.	Following on from Yesterday's lesson, click on the 'Word Sort' section on the link from yesterday and complete the task.
Thursday	We are learning alternative spellings for the /ai/ phoneme	Following on from yesterday's lesson, click on the 'best bet' section of the link. You will need to discuss with an adult what you think the best bit is for example the middle of a word.		Practise reading these sentences. You could highlight the /ai/ sounds beforehand if you like. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The chief jumped in the deep freezing sea with a squeak. 2. He had a dream about magic beans that made him scream. 3. The beast machine ate a feast of green peas
Friday	Tricky word spelling test after, child, every, half, move, plant, whole	Revise alternative spellings for the /ee/ phoneme by reading through The Spooky Halloween Story and identifying as many alternative spellings as you can (file attached separately).
