

Tuesday 16th March 2021

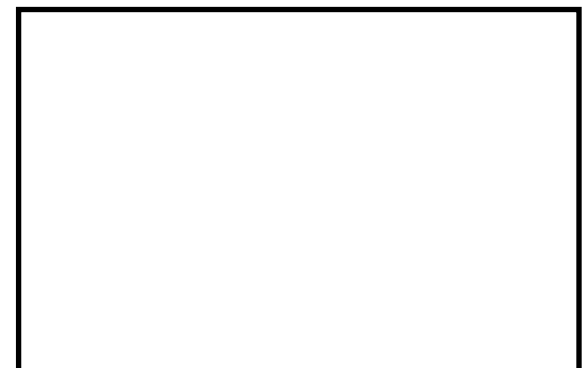

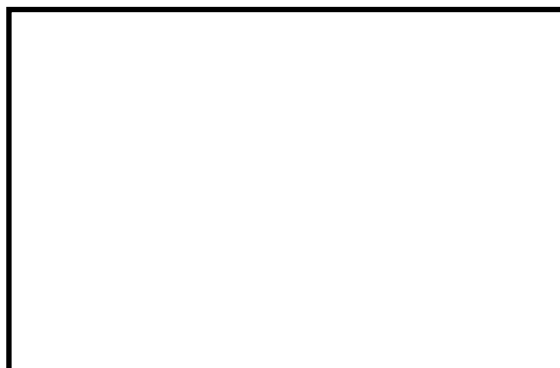

WALT: Draw pictures to order a section of the story.

Harry O'Hay was searching for some pink flowers.

He met a bee who said he could help him find some pink flowers.

They then meet a toad who helps them to find water for the flowers.

Harry O'Hay and the toad stop for a sleep after climbing the steep hill.

They meet a snail who helps them to find a pail for the pink flowers and water.

Harry O'Hay takes the pail filled with water and flowers back to the farm.