

Task 1

Today I would like you to go to your book shelf at home. Sort through your books and find some non-fiction/ information books. Explain to your child that information books are not story books but one that gives us information. Select a non-fiction book to read with your child. Turn through the pages of the book and talk about the way the information is presented.

Draw attention to and discuss the various features:

- Contents page
- Index
- Diagrams
- Labels
- Captions
- Heading
- Information boxes
- photos