

Name: _____ Date: _____

Garden problems

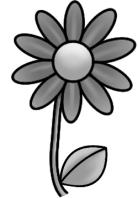

Solve multiplication and division problems

7 bugs have 2 spots each. How many spots do they have altogether?

There are 10 petals on this flower. Half of them fall off. How many petals are left?

There are 20 snails. They are divided equally between 5 leaves. How many snails are on each leaf?

There are 6 plants. 10 butterflies are around each plant. How many butterflies are there altogether?

There are 9 tomato plants. Each plant has 5 tomatoes. How many tomatoes are there altogether?

50 tulip bulbs are shared equally between 10 window boxes. How many tulip bulbs are in each window box?

Teacher's notes

Children should read each word problem then write the multiplication or division calculation in the spaces provided.