

What I Did During Lockdown

Schools have been closed for a while to keep us safe during the coronavirus outbreak. Now, it is time to return to school and we are going to settle back into a school routine again.

In the bubbles below, write, draw or stick five things that you did during your time at home. This could be anything from watching your favourite film or TV programme to riding your bike, reading a book, baking a cake or building a den!

