

Question:

You find a wallet with money in it outside a shop.

What do you do? What would Jesus do?

A. Keep it! Finders keepers after all.

B. Hand it into the shop.

C. Take it and give the money to someone in need.

D. Leave the wallet there.

Question:

You find a wallet with money in it outside a shop.

What do you do? What would Jesus do?

A. Keep it! Finders keepers after all.

B. Hand it into the shop.

C. Take it and give the money to someone in need.

D. Leave the wallet there.

Question:

You're down at the park with all your friends. They start to graffiti the play area.

What do you do? What would Jesus do?

A. Laugh, make jokes and encourage your friends to carry on.

B. Walk away – go home and pretend it never happened.

C. Join in – it's fun!

D. Walk away and tell your parents/carers.

Question:

You're down at the park with all your friends. They start to graffiti the play area.

What do you do? What would Jesus do?

A. Laugh, make jokes and encourage your friends to carry on.

B. Walk away – go home and pretend it never happened.

C. Join in – it's fun!

D. Walk away and tell your parents/carers.

Question:

Your friends are name calling another pupil in the playground, thinking it's funny.

What do you do? What would Jesus do?

A. Tell them to stop and tell a teacher.

B. Be part of it; join in, belittling the other pupil.

C. Stand back and watch.

D. Walk away and don't tell anyone, pretending you didn't see it happen.

Question:

Your friends are name calling another pupil in the playground, thinking it's funny.

What do you do? What would Jesus do?

A. Tell them to stop and tell a teacher.

B. Be part of it; join in, belittling the other pupil.

C. Stand back and watch.

D. Walk away and don't tell anyone, pretending you didn't see it happen.

Question:

You're out on a walk with your family and you notice some litter on the floor. What do you do? What would Jesus do?

A. Put it in the bin, but miss and then just leave it.

B. Tread on it without a care in the world.

C. Pick it up and put it in your pocket because there isn't a bin in sight.

D. Ignore it and walk straight past it.

Question:

You're on a walk with your family and you notice some litter on the floor. What do you do? What would Jesus do?

A. Put it in the bin, but miss and then just leave it.

B. Tread on it without a care in the world.

C. Pick it up and put it in your pocket because there isn't a bin in sight.

D. Ignore it and walk straight past it.

Question:

During a lesson, you find yourself challenged by the work.

What do you do? What would Jesus do?

A. Give up and sit there – have a chat with your friends instead.

B. Copy your friend's work (no one's watching – who will know?)

C. Have a go but get all the work wrong.

D. Put your hand up and ask for help.

Question:

During a lesson, you find yourself challenged by the work.

What do you do? What would Jesus do?

A. Give up and sit there – have a chat with your friends instead.

B. Copy your friend's work (no one's watching – who will know?)

C. Have a go but get all the work wrong.

D. Put your hand up and ask for help.

Question:

Your mum has made you a packed lunch with lots of love and thought – but you would have preferred something else?

What do you do? What would Jesus do?

A. Even though you don't like what you see, you still eat it.

B. Leave what's in your lunch box and take it all back home to make a point.

C. Sneakily, throw it all in the bin in the dinner hall – your mum won't know!

D. On purpose, you knock a drink over, which spills all over your lunch and you result in having a school dinner instead.

Question:

Your mum has made you a packed lunch with lots of love and thought – but you would have preferred something else?

What do you do? What would Jesus do?

A. Even though you don't like what you see, you still eat it without a fuss.

B. Leave what's in your lunch box and take it all back home to make a point.

C. Sneakily, throw it all in the bin in the dinner hall – your mum won't know!

D. On purpose, you knock a drink over, which spills all over your lunch and you result in having a school dinner instead.

Question:

Your friend has written a song and shares it with you and some other friends. You listen but think it's awful! What do you do? What would Jesus do?

A. Laugh in their face and tell them it's awful.

B. Say to their face that it's good and then walk away and absolutely slate their work.

C. Tell them well done and give them some positive critical feedback.

D. Advise them to stop writing because they clearly have no talent at all.

Question:

Your friend has written a song and shares it with you and some other friends. You listen but think it's awful! What do you do? What would Jesus do?

A. Laugh in their face and tell them it's awful.

B. Say to their face that it's good and then walk away and absolutely slate their work.

C. Congratulate them as well as giving them some positive critical feedback.

D. Advise them to stop writing because they clearly have no talent at all.

Question:

You're at the school Christmas party and it's food time!

There's one last chocolate cake left on the plate, but another pupil in class also wants it (bearing in mind you've had two already and they haven't had one).

What do you do? What would Jesus do?

A. Pretend you haven't had one.

B. Argue over it.

C. Offer it to the other person.

D. Snatch it quickly off the plate before they get to it.

Question:

You're at the school Christmas party and it's food time!

There's one last chocolate cake left on the plate, but another pupil in class also wants it (bearing in mind you've had two already and they haven't had one).

What do you do? What would Jesus do?

A. Pretend you haven't had one.

B. Argue over it.

C. Offer it to the other person.

D. Snatch it quickly off the plate before they get to it.